

The Deh Cho Regional ICSP Workshop is the fifth in a series of five workshops hosted by the MACA Regional Offices and delivered in partnership with the NWT Association of Communities (NWTAC). Participants were instructed on the components of Strategic Planning, the new NWT ICSP Tool-Kit and how to integrate data from the other three required Plans; Capital, Energy and Human Resources.

Topics and Highlights included:

- Overview of Integrated Community Sustainability Plans
- Overview of Strategic Planning
- Overview of the NWT ICSP Tool-Kit
- Hands on Individual, Group and Community work on NWT ICSP Tool-Kit
- Supports and Resources

PLUS:

- Lunch with Deh Cho MACA Regional Staff

100% of the participants felt they learned valuable information about strategic planning and ICSP's.

Location: Fort Simpson
Date: February 10-12, 2009
Facilitators:
Susan Coyne (NWTAC)
Sabrina Broadhead (MACA)
Penny Johnson (MACA)
Ron Hardisty (MACA)

Workshop Participants

- Fort Simpson – Mayor Duncan Carvin, A/SAO Darlene Sibbeston
Jean Marie River – Acting Chief / Acting Band Manager Fred Norwegian, Arnold Gargan, Margaret Ireland
Nahanni Butte – Samantha Konisenta
Wrigley – Band Manager Paul Nadijwan
NWTAC – Susan Coyne
MACA – Liza McPherson, Ron Hardisty, Sabrina Broadhead, Penny Johnson

Comments from Workshop Evaluation

“It is a good to get hands on training so that I am comfortable and get familiarized myself with the ICSP Toolkit.”

“Makes the work we need to do at the community level very easy. I still feel uneasy about the March 31, 2010 date but if the community shares the work we should meet the date.”

For further information contact:
Sabrina Broadhead
School of Community Government
MACA, GNWT

867-874-5079 sabrina\_broadhead@gov.nt.ca