

Youth Contribution Program Guidelines

The Youth Contribution Program is geared to people under 25 years of age. It supports initiatives that promote positive lifestyles to improve the quality of life and well-being of youth in their communities.

The goals of the program are to:

- Support youth related programs;
- Encourage youth to take initiatives that lead to positive lifestyle choices;
- Promote traditional Aboriginal youth activities so that they may strengthen northern Aboriginal traditions and culture;
- Recognize that community governments play an important role in promoting, developing and delivering activities for youth and should be encouraged and supported to continue these efforts.

Applications will be accepted for funding in the following areas:

- Non-sporting, school-related extra-curricular activities and trips or youth trips sponsored by other organizations.
- New and innovating projects targeted at improving lifestyle choices.
- Development of youth related organizations, including annual general meetings and conferences as well as the development of plans for those organizations. Core operational funding will not be provided.
- Traditional Aboriginal cultural events.

The following criteria must be met:

1. Focus on developmental activities and initiatives that create a long-term commitment to positive lifestyle choices for youth.
2. Provide positive benefits to five (5) or more youth.

Applications must demonstrate that...

- ✓ Your organization operates on a non-profit basis and works to benefit the residents of your community.
- ✓ The applicant is developing a program for youth under the age of 25 years.
- ✓ The project supports the Youth Contribution goals and priorities.
- ✓ Expenses related to the conduct of fundraising events are not eligible
- ✓ If possible, recognition of Municipal and Community Affairs as a funding source.
